S showing the tremendous A growth of the American merchant marine since the signing of the Armistice, Gus Brown, executive officer of the International Scamen's Union of America with offices at No. 51 South Street, said to-day that since November, 1918, the membership of that organization has increased from 50,000 to 70,000.

"Fully one half of our members," said Brown, "are native born Americans and at least 15 percent, of the remainder naturalized Americans. The organization is 'international' in that we have some locals in Canadian ports, but all our men-sailors, cooks, stewards and firemen-are on American office."

Brown made it clear that the Scamen's union is not going on strikes, of sympathetic or other variety. Its signed agreements, he said, cun until May, 1921, and will be respected to the letter.

6 Food is still high. The public cannot do without it and therefore must pay the prices demanded. BANKERS EXTEND CAMPAIGN

TO DEFLATE CREDITS. Pursuant to their piedge to the Federal Reserve Board, leading banking interests here to-day extended their campaign of deflation of credits and high commodity prices. In the financial district this policy already has been effective in reducing speculative loans against securities to the extent of hundreds of million dollars in the last fortnight, in one instance that of a prominent trust company, by $100,000,000 ip three weeks. Banks in the wholesale dry goods and general merchandise districts have been proceeding along the same lines, and the pressure exerted by those institutions is said to be directly responsible for the wave of rice cutting. Downtown banks are reported to have advised drastic curtailment of loans to merchants who for any reason fall to comply with the Government's defiation programme

By wearing old clothes the public brought down the price of new clothes; by refusing to buy new rugs and curtains and decorations and a thousand and one odds and ends of muschold conveniences the prices of hese were brought down. Here are results:

The New York woman buying things for her personal use will find in the advertisements to-day the names and locations of stores where she can save from a fourth to three In Fifth Avenue she can buy furs for $75, which the merchant a short time ago wanted to sell her for $100only she wouldn't buy then. Because she had her old shoes repaired rather than pay $20 for a new pair, she is now able to get that same new pair for $11.65, and she can do very much better than that if she does not insist on getting something "fancy."

A little while ago the suit she really wanted was quoted in Fifth Avenue at $245. She refused to buy t, and it is offered to her this morning for exactly $100 less. If that is the suit she insists on wearing she has saved $100 by waiting a few weeks. The business suit that she refused to buy for $85 is now $50. And with the $35 that she has saved on that purchase she can get another tailored suit of the sort that formerly cont $60 or $70. PRICES DOWN 50 PER CENT. FOR HIGH-PRICED GOODS. She can save from $25 to $75 on a wrap which she recently refused to buy for $100 or $150. Dinner gowns prices are down more than 50 per ent, in several fashionable shops.
